Beth Hill is a paralegal specializing in the areas of commercial real estate and general corporate law. Beth's experience includes acquisitions, financing, development and sales of all types of commercial real estate, large tract assemblages and 1031 exchanges, office and retail leasing from both the landlord and tenant perspective and formation of entities, including corporations and limited liability companies. During her more than 23 years in the real estate environment, Beth has worked with attorneys whose clients include real estate developers, large retailers, end users, real estate investors and commercial lenders.

Beth attended Pasco-Hernando Junior College. Prior to working with the attorneys of Tatum Hillman Hickerson & Powell, LLP, Beth worked with Tatum, Levine & Powell, LLP (Atlanta), the Commercial Real Estate Department at Morris, Manning & Martin, LLP (Atlanta), and was the manager of a branch office of Richards, Gilkey, Fite, Slaughter, Pratesi & Ward, P.A. (Port Richey, Florida).

Beth and her husband have two children. In her spare time, Beth enjoys playing softball and tennis, cooking, gardening and reading.
